

Welcome to my website

Mohammed Ahmed

Software Engineering Student

My CV

About Me

Mohammed Ahmed

Information technology student majoring in software engineering. I am a programmer and web designer. I work in several programming languages. Experience in the field of technology and information security in social media platforms.

Our Services

Web programmer

"Hello! I'm a freelance web developer and programmer, dedicated to providing innovative and customized web solutions. Contact me to turn your ideas into reality and achieve your goals on the web."

Web Developer

"Hello! I'm a freelance web developer, committed to providing innovative and custom web solutions. Contact me to turn your ideas into reality and achieve your digital goals."

Security

"Hello! I specialize in social media information management and security. I provide effective solutions to protect personal data and ensure user safety. Contact me to enhance the security of your accounts and safeguard against cyber threats."

Technology

I'm an IT expert experienced in software development, interface design, network management, and information security. I specialize in securing social media and data protection. Passionate about technology, I stay updated on the latest trends and continuously enhance my skills to provide innovative IT solutions.

My Skills

